July 3-7: “Wonka’s Chocolate Factory”: Wonka’s golden ticket holder found! Come join us for a surprising week in the land of Willy Wonka himself. We’ll dip our hand into the chocolate fountain when we try making our own chocolate bars-wrappers included. Other activities include; ornament gumball machines, STEM gummy bear trees, and lastly DIY dramatic play chocolate factory sweet treat carts. *$20.00 material fee applies.

July 10-14: “Geometric Art”: Come celebrate random shapes and lines to create an art masterpiece. Colored paper, assorted paints, designer tape and permanent markers are just some of the art mediums we will be using this week. If art is your thing, then this week is unquestionably for you. We’ll also be visited by our friend and magician Louie Foxx. We can’t wait to see what surprises he has in store for us. *$10.00 material fee applies.

July 17-28: “Knights & Castles”: Calling all royal court members... The royal family has requested your presence in the noble hall. This week we will be scouring the palace in search of dodgy intruders. Come help protect the castle from dragons, trolls and other mischievous creatures. Activities include; DIY pool noodle horses, DIY dragons eggs, medieval stain glass window panels and DIY “coat of arms”. King Arthur can’t help but show gratitude for his courageous knights. *$20.00 material fee applies.

July 31-Aug 4: “Alice In Wonderland”: We’re late for a very important date. Come one, come all to this week of exciting twists and turns as we follow Alice into Wonderland. A stop off for a tea party and some cup stacking with the Mad Hatter and the March Hare will just be the beginning of this thrilling ride. Activities include; DIY mini croquet fields, DIY sock caterpillars, playing card soldiers, stacking contests and much more. Come be a part of this whimsical week. *$20.00 material fee applies.

Aug 7-11: “Mini Beasts”: Calling all creature fans out there, this week we will explore different parts of the world in search of “mini beasts.” We’ll dive deep down into the ocean to look for angler fish, walk across the desert looking for scorpions, as well as looking in our own back yards for creatures to create a bug hotel for. Lastly, we’ll fly south to investigate fireflies and lightning bugs. This week is sure to be a fan favorite. *$20.00 material fee applies.

Aug 14-18: “Batten Down the Hatches”: Climb aboard our pirate ship to sail across the open seas in search of buried treasure.
